

Bonar Law, Former British Premier, Noted Canadian, Is Victim of Pneumonia

FORMER KAISER SEEKS RETURN TO THE THRONE OF FATHERLAND

Doorn, Holland, Oct. 25.—The visit which former Crown Prince Frederick of Prussia is now making at Doorn Castle is regarded as having considerable significance.

According to information from several reliable sources, and from persons close to the former Kaiser, the presence of the prince in Doorn is connected with the return of Princess Hermine from the Reich, whence she brought very important news concerning the activities of the Nationalist Military party and the chances of the eventual return of William Hohenzollern to the throne.

It is stated that Hermine herself is displaying great activity, and that all her keen intelligence is directed toward the object and hope of becoming empress. Moreover, quite recently an officer of high rank from Dresden, and a political personage from Munich, have been guests of the former emperor, who since this visit has shown great nervousness.

A detail regarded as curious is the fact that a Doorn furniture dealer has been commanded to sell a large quantity of the rich tapestries and curtains belonging to the exile, and also a large part of the former Kaiser's wardrobe.

The Dutch government and authorities are closely watching the movements of the ex-Kaiser and his son, and the police force guarding them has been doubled.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The former German crown prince has urgently requested that he be allowed to return to Germany, it was learned today.

After vigorous correspondence between the prince and Chancellor Stresemann, the chancellor laid the matter before one of the recent numerous sittings of the cabinet for a decision.

Socialists are considerably embarrassed by the appeal and no decision has been reached yet.

London, Oct. 30.—Andrew Bonar Law, for seven months prime minister of Great Britain, died at his home at 3 o'clock this morning. The official bulletin issued by the physicians who attended the former premier read as follows: "Mr. Bonar Law died at three o'clock following an acute attack of septic pneumonia." (Signed) "Gold, May, Horder."

London, Oct. 30.—Andrew Bonar Law died at 1:20 this morning of septic pneumonia.

Andrew Bonar Law, the only Canadian-born who reached the premiership of Great Britain, died after a brief illness. The end came quickly. Three days ago the public learned that the illness of the former premier was causing some anxiety to his friends. The announcement was made yesterday that the illness had developed into pneumonia and the public began to prepare for the worst.

On November 1 of last year Bonar Law became premier of Great Britain. On May 20 he resigned because of ill-health.

Five months ago—on May 20—he resigned the premiership on account of a throat ailment which for a long time had troubled him. Even then he was reluctant to admit that his career was finished and retained his seat in the commons where he since made two or three speeches.

Bonar Law was born in New Brunswick, Canada, September 16, 1858, the son of the Rev. James Law, M. A., of New Brunswick. In early youth he was taken to Glasgow where he attended high school and finally became bookkeeper for an iron firm.

Later he was made a member of the concern and when he retired from business to enter politics was one of the biggest iron merchants of Scotland. Golf and chess were his favorite recreations.

Nine years before his election to parliament he married Miss Annie Pitcairn Robley of Glasgow, who died in 1909. Four children were born to them, two sons and two daughters.

One daughter, Isabelle, became the bride of Sir General Fredrick Sykes

MINISTER STRIKES AT "DRY" LAW

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Emphatic condemnation of attempts to enforce prohibition laws in Canada and the United States in the absence of a strong measure of public opinion in favor of enforcement of such measures was voiced by Rev. T. C. Brown in addressing the 46th Highlanders at the special church service in New St. Andrew's church yesterday.

The speaker made pungent allusion to the manner in which officers of the law are attempting to deal with suspected violation thereof, saying that here in Canada the life of a citizen was not safe, as he might be held up on the highway by constables on mere suspicion. He cited the recent case of the killing of John Gogo in Toronto to support his assertion that the value of human life was not given proper consideration.

In London in 1920. Two sons, Anthony and Lieutenant C. T. Bonar Law were lost in the war.

ARMISTICE DAY

November 11th 1918! What memories this fifth anniversary of that day conjure up. The lads standing in the trenches emptied their magazines before the long looked for 11th hour, the gunners fired salvoes in an energetic effort to clear their ammunition supply, and all were at a loss for the moment, unable to realize that the most stupendous struggle of all time was to be halted at that time. The boys in hospital at the time will not soon forget the strange feeling of relief that they would not have to return to the channel house of France and Flanders. Some there were, no doubt, who were unable to realize the far reaching effects of the agreement reached between the opposing commanders. It can hardly be imagined what the feelings of many just admitted to hospital must have been. Debarred from all the boisterous rejoicings of their fellows, forced to remain quiet, some blinded by the foul mustard gas, some with their limbs gone, some perhaps just down from the line the night before, they must have felt that they were cheated of their hard won right to participate in the celebration of the victory. What plans were made that day, nearly every man renouncing his military career, and anticipating the joys of civilian life.

How have these lads fared in the ensuing five years—how many of them are there who cannot help but feel that perhaps their celebration was premature. There are hundreds, nay thousands of them now ready and eager to resume the contest halted by the armistice notwithstanding their lurid denunciation of all things pertaining to military service.

The day has not been forgotten, however, and each year brings with it a recurrence of the happy memories of good comradeship cemented by the ever present danger. Forgotten are the working parties and arduous fatigues, long nights on listening post and tense moments on offensive patrols, perhaps their rattling machine-guns, in dingy estaminets where Madame and Marie piled the troops with beer and vins rouge and "blunk." The short trips on leave to Merrie England, and the restful hours of convalescence.

It has become the custom for ex-service men to reunite on this anniversary and to fight their battles over again. The Macleod Branch of the G. W. Y. A. have inaugurated the custom of holding a Military Ball on November 11th or as nearly on that date as possible. This year will be no exception and arrangements are now being made to continue the movement. November 12th has been selected as the day for the festive occasion, and a large gathering of the clans is being planned. It is hoped that as many as possible will don the old uniform for the night, and that it will be a case of "Back to the army again, Sergeant!" Dancers $1.00; spectators, 50c. CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

RAY GATHERS TALES FOR "DEUCE OF SPADES"

At The Empress Fri. and Sat.

Supporting Cast Includes Marjorie Maurice, Lincoln Plumer, Andrew Arbuckle and Philip Dunham

Charles Ray is supported by a splendid cast in "The Deuce of Spades," which was adapted for screen purposes by Richard Andrews from the published story by the late Charles E. Van Loan.

The part of the girl, a western type, is taken by Marjorie Maurice, who, as Marjorie Prevost, played with Ray in "The Old Swimmin' Hole."

Miss Maurice is one of the best straight comedienne in motion pictures and has personality and beauty in addition to real talent.

Lincoln Plumer will be recalled as the unctious druggist in "The Barnstormer." His part of the hotel keeper in "The Deuce of Spades" is even more humorous.

Philip Dunham caused many laughs in "Two Minutes to Go" as a perky little Spanish professor, and in the current feature he is a barber, postmaster and a most amusing character.

Andrew Arbuckle and Jack Richardson, both well known actors, appear with Charles Ray for the first time in his independent productions. They are a pretty pair of knaves, likeable if rascally! Both are well cast and get lots out of their parts.

J. P. Lockney as "Greasy Bill" certainly looks the part, while Gus Leonard as an old peddler, Bert O'ford in a dual role and William Courtwright fill out a supporting cast which could hardly be equalled.

"RITZY" DANCE IN "ONLY 38"

Big Audience Listened to Mrs. Bishop and Mr. Farthing in Support Mod. League Platform

The town hall was filled with an enthusiastic audience last Thursday night to hear Mrs. Bishop, of Edmonton and Mr. Farthing, of Calgary.

Seldom has a more appreciative audience attended such a meeting, and the spirit prevailing was in marked contrast to that of the meeting held on behalf of the prohibition party. J. W. McDonald, E.C. acted as chairman and with him on the platform were the speakers of the evening. R. F. Barnes, the secretary of the local branch of the Moderation League and Mr. Gray.

It was announced at the beginning that an opportunity for the prohibition party to state their views would be given and Rev. Mr. Armstrong accepted the invitation and took a seat on the starboard side of the chairman.

Mrs. Bishop was the first to speak, and her address was most interesting, giving as it did a side light on the conditions prevailing under the present Liquor Act. The speaker stated that she was strongly in favor of temperance, both she and her husband being total abstainers, but when she saw the evil effects which followed in the train of the Liquor Act, it was apparent that the cure was worse than the disease. She traced the course of the Liquor Act from its beginning as a successful attempt to abolish the bar down to its present unholy state as a sower of dissension, and breeder of disrespect for it and all other laws. She stated emphatically that the Moderation League is strenuously opposed to the bar and read the original request of the League in which it expressly stated that there was to be no bar. It seems that the present clause "D" was drafted by a committee composed of three ardent prohibitionists and one moderationist, and why the ambiguous question as to beer was inserted could only be answered by that committee. It was obvious however that the mode of dispensing beer was to be directed by the government, and that there is no foundation for the assumption that by voting "D" that the picture in question.

Unfortunately before she was able to finish her speech Mrs. Bishop's voice failed her. It was with genuine regret that the audience realized Mrs. Bishop's misfortune and round after round of applause was accorded to the plucky orator, who has given her time and energy to show that the women of the province are not in favor of the prohibition of beer in the present act, but support a policy of moderation as the true path to temperance.

The time allotted to the prohibition side was then utilized by the Rev. Mr. Armstrong, first in biling his hand that fed him, so to speak, by charging that the liquor interests were financing the Moderation League, next in complaining of the shortness of time placed at his disposal by the Moderation League, next an unwarranted attack upon Mrs. Bishop, the government and the public.

After Mrs. Armstrong made a very strong and eloquent appeal on behalf of the Prohibition Party. He quoted a number of statistics and newspaper reports, which seemed to indicate that there were few merits in any system of moderation.

When the time elapsed Mr. Armstrong left the platform and resumed his place in the audience, being accorded his due measure of applause.

Mr. Farthing then spoke on behalf of the Moderation League. The speaker lost no time in refuting the statement made by the previous speaker that the Moderation League was being financed by the liquor interests. He also reminded the Reverend gentleman of the amenities usually observed in debate.

Mr. Farthing then proceeded in a masterly and eloquent address to expose the venom and injustice which is contained in the Liquor Act. He pointed out how the British axiom that a law which does not enjoy the moral support or approbation of twenty-five per cent of the citizens, is of no use in the province on behalf of the prohibition party. In view of this man's war record his presence here was branded as a gratuitous insult to all returned men.

Mr. Farthing quoted statistics showing the increase in crime and If, a few years ago, a casting director had handed in a cast such as that supplied by Gloria Swanson in her latest Paramount picture, "Prodigal Daughters," which will be displayed at the Empress theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, the chances are the studio management would collapse. But Paramount is determined that casts of the highest possible calibre shall grace each of its pictures, and no expense to that end was spared. Here is the line-up for the picture in question.

Gloria Swanson, star; Ralph Graves, leading man; Vera Reynolds, Charles Clay, Theodore Roberts; George Fawcett, Robert Agnew, Louise Dresser, Maude Wayne and Julia Faye.

In the list are at least three who have had remarkable stage careers. Several more have been leading figures of the silent drama for years. The star is one of the screen's most beautiful and best dressed women. And yet every player is picked because of suitability as well as ability.

The Toronto Star quotes a British Cabinet Minister as saying that "Canada is now giving us a substantial preference and she may give us more." No chance! That is a part of the Liberal platform.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS

The Voter MUST NOT use the X mark. He should mark the figure 1 opposite the question he wishes to become law. He should then mark the figure 2 opposite the question he would select as second choice, the figure 3 opposite his third choice, the figure 4 opposite his fourth choice. He must make no other mark on the ballot. The voter may "plump" for one question alone, using the figure 1, without spoiling his ballot, or he may vote for only two or only three choices.

Voters are urged, however, to vote the full extent of their four choices. There is always the possibility that the question of his first choice will not carry. In that case he should have a second choice, and a third choice and a fourth choice. Only by marking the full number of choices does the voter obtain the full benefit of the preferential ballot, and the government obtain a complete expression of the opinion of the people.

FIND TRUE BILLS AGAINST DAILY AND THE DIRECTORS

Toronto, Oct. 30.—True bills were brought in by the assizes grand jury here today in the cases against President H. J. Daly and nine other directors and officials of the Home Bank. This procedure will obviate the necessity for further police court proceedings. Counsel for the attorney-general will ask for supreme court to expedite the proceedings.

Toronto, Oct. 30.—For the third time the cases of the directors and officials of the Home Bank of Canada, arrested on various charges following the failure of the bank, were resumed for a week in police court today. Nine of the ten men arrested appeared in court today, H. J. Daly, president, being unable to attend on account of illness.

It is expected that another remand will be made when the directors and officials appear next Friday. There was no plea or election and no change made regarding bail made in the proceedings today.

No statement was given out today at the conclusion of a meeting of shareholders and depositors of the Home Bank of Canada which was held in camera. It is understood, however, that offers for properties of the bank in Eastern Canada aggregating two million dollars were under consideration at the meeting.

cost of police work under the Liquor Act. He referred to the heavy cost of administration, the army of spectators and stool pigeons who are undermining the moral foundation of our country, and the almost universal hypocrisy resulting from the Liquor Act. It is well known, he said, that any man can obtain liquor easily in the larger cities, and only with little more difficulty in the smaller ones.

He deplored the drink habit which is spreading among the younger generation, and which is so obvious to all who go out into the world. This state of affairs did not exist prior to the Liquor Act, and it is to that Act that these things must be charged.

He asked therefore, that those who sought a remedy for this wave of lawlessness which is spreading over the country, and succouring from irritations and inequalities of the Liquor Act should vote "D" for Clause "D" on November the 5th, and give the government a chance to solve a safe and sane temperance act.

When Mr. Farthing had finished the applause which had punctuated his speech broke into a deafening crescendo of approval, which did not subside for several minutes.

An invitation was then given to any who might desire to ask questions, to do so—but no one seemed so inclined—a vast number of the audience remarking that all guns had been silenced.

After singing God Save the King the meeting dispersed.

MAJORITY FOR MCMURRAY 2868

Heaps, independent labor candidate, his closest rival, to 2868. J. A. Martin and Paul Giguere, both independent candidates, lost their deposits, having only polled 39 and 201 votes respectively. Alderman Heaps polled 2843 votes while the solicitor-general received 5649.

VOTE 1 FOR CLAUSE "D" (GOVERNMENT CONTROL) NOVEMBER 5th

The Legislature and not the Moderationists are responsible for the wording of Clause "D" and it is the Legislature that will have to interpret it. It is evident however that it was not intended to and will not mean the return of the BAR SYSTEM. The Government and the Legislature being a democratic body depend on the people for their support and they recognize that the people of Alberta both Prohibitionists and Moderationists are against it and they would not dare to legislate in the face of popular opinion.

There are many ways in which the consumption of beer on licensed premises can be regulated without restoring the bar system and we may rest assured that it is one of these systems the Government will adopt rather than one which is objectionable to the people.

EGGS-ACTLY!

Oh, living on a poultry farm Is full of grief and woe!
For eggs are wanted when they're high.
But not when they are low!
And now when the price is going up,
And we might make a nickel, Biddy concludes that she will moult, In manner false and sly!

Two months ago, when eggs galore Were laid by scores and cases, We'd humbly offer them for sale,
And dealers just made faces; But now the tune is altered quite,
And they are going up,
The hens are ambling round at ease,
And will not go on laying.

Now which is cause, and which effect?
And did the hen come first?
Or did the egg precede the hen?
And have we reached the worst?
And why, when eggs are going up, Should Biddy prove a quitter?
If all these riddles could be solved Life would be so much sweeter!
—H. A. Brassey.

WHAT MAN WANTS

"Man wants but little here below, Nor wants that little long."
Who wrote that I should like to know He seems to have been wrong.
Man, I have generally found, Whatever is his store,
Is all the time just looking round To get a little more.

Our appetites for gold and fame Are never satisfied,
With flattery it's just the same,
Our mouths are opened wide.
Of knowledge we can't get enough, It's nothing to deplore, But wanting little! That's the stuff.
We want a little more.

The wedge of pumpkin pie
The early morning dose
The winter's furnace coal supply, The gift a friend bestows.
The sunshine we so often miss,
The music adored,
The maiden's shy and conscious kiss
We want a little more.

MORE MEDDLING WITH JUSTICE

No arm is longer than that of slobbery sentiment. It stretches all the way from Toronto to the Arctic circle in an attempt to pluck from the hands of justice the two Eskimo desperadoes sentenced to be hanged at Herschel Island December 7.

If a few weak-kneed silly petitions are allowed by the Department of Justice to interfere with the execution of this sentence, Canadian authority might just as well move right out of the Eskimo country and leave it to lawlessness, undeveloped and uncivilized.

No one knows the potential productivity of these North regions. No one knows just what they will some day be worth to Canada when science has conquered some of the climatic obstructions to progress.

But it is no use even thinking about it if the advance of civilization northward is to be halted by the sentimental sobsters.

If the administration of justice had been hampered in this way 50 and 100 years ago, Canada would still be a little settlement near Quebec and Toronto would never have been thought of.

MATRIMONIAL WINDOW
SHOPPERS

More than 800 divorces are waiting to be heard in London, England.
Divorce is increasing in the United States.

And not only is divorce increasing but people are becoming more frank about it. Divorce is no longer a means to an end. It is an end itself.

Mrs. Anna Tobolsky, of New Jersey says that a woman should have a new husband every eight years.
What Mrs. Tobolsky says openly, many people are believing secretly in their hearts.

There is something both morally and mentally wrong with an educational system which leads people up to the point of believing that the present marriage system is a failure.

This is a generation of matrimonial window shoppers. The experimental fever has reached such a height in this age that marriage today is to a marriage of yesterday what a window shopping expedition is to a genuine purchasing trip.

The world was never more in earnest about the solution of its material problems, never more dilatory about the solution of its spiritual ones.

INEVITABLE THAT
ALBERTA GRAIN WILL GO TO VANCOUVER

Montreal, Oct. 27.—Before the Grain Inquiry Commission and in the presence of many of the biggest business men of the city, the western route for at least all Alberta's grain was frankly declared to be the inevitable trend of events.

N. C. Stewart, of the British Empire Exporting Company, asserted he was sending a ship a month to Vancouver loaded with general cargo and returning with lumber, grain and other loads. His firm had opened an office there, he told the commission and he believed that port was destined to rival that of the St. Lawrence, Montreal, with ten million bushel elevator capacity and open but little over half the year, was handling 150,000,000 bushels of grain annually, so it was obvious that Vancouver would not require so much with an all-year-round port.

The Biggest Boost
But it is P. F. Fennell, general manager of the Montreal harbor commission, whose report presented to the commission gave the biggest boost to the west route. On this subject the report which is uttered with the authority of the commission, asserts that: "the shipments of wheat from Alberta overseas via Vancouver have received great momentum in the past years. Wheat shipments last year totalled 1,300,000 bushels, that port in 1921 totalled 1,300,000 bushels, while during 1922 they reached a total of 17,297,500 bushels, and this year may reach 50,000,000.

Increased elevator facilities are being provided. The grain producing area which appears to be tributary to this port consists of most of the provinces of Alberta, and some sections of Western Saskatchewan. This is an entirely normal and natural movement.

Factor for Success
"So far as concerns shipments to Europe, the movement is rendered possible by use of the Panama canal, and it gives opportunity of expanding on a steadily increasing scale.
If this happens, the result can be only beneficial, those portions of our western provinces directly affected, while another great Canadian ocean port is in the making out-tanding, possibly, all Pacific and gulf railing rates from these wheat-exporting centres. Thus will be added another factor insuring further prosperity and success in Western Canada, the reaction to which will be felt even as far distant as we are here in Montreal.

"A chief factor in developing the export of grain through Vancouver appears to be the securing of differential rail rates from points west of that line, and as naturally towards the St.
Lawrence from all points east of it.

No Apprehension
"Some apprehension has been expressed as to the effect of the development of a Pacific port of exit, via Panama, for western grain upon the fortunes of the port of Montreal.
The commissioners are convinced that not only is there not the slightest ground for such apprehension, but that such development can only add to the prosperity and advantage of every Canadian interest.

"It is confidently believed that no dislocation whatever in the volume of traffic arising in the direction of the St. Lawrence route can possibly result. The producing area from which this route derives its traffic is so extensive as to make it certain that our problem here in each succeeding season will be kept abreast of expansion."

ROCKEFELLER THE GREATEST OF ALL
PHILANTHROPISTS

In twenty years the Rockefeller endowed philanthropic funds have paid out or pledged (with cash in hand to fulfill the pledges) an aggregate of $186,832,574. This fact is brought out in connection with the recent issuing of the first report of the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial. The capital contained in the Rockefeller trust funds for philanthropy is to-day $383,278,041, including an estimated $185,000,000 for the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research. The Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial is shown, in its report, to have distributed $9,361,871 from its founding, four years ago, down to the end of 1922. The Rockefeller Foundation has disbursed $76-767,040 in its ten years of existence.

The total amount of gifts of the third big Rockefeller donating organization, the General Education Board, is $97,216,774 in payments or pledges.

In Memory of His Wife Chronologically, the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial is the last of the four important Rockefeller funds. Its purposes are charitable and philanthropic. The recent summary of its work, covering the period up to December 31st, 1922, showed that the total income to date was $13,605,048.85. In addition to the actual distribution of $9,361,871.12, the memorial promised $3,496,888.66, to be paid on the fulfillment of conditions. After the deduction of $43-861.81 for administrative expenses, there was a margin of income over outgo to the extent of $721,427.26.

As in all the Rockefeller funds, the directors have the privilege of spending the principal as well as the interest. Each of the Rockefeller funds is operated independently. These benefactions represent a total investment of approximately four-fifths of the $100,000,000 which John D. Rockefeller put into charitable and philanthropic work up to 1921. According to official figures down to date, the principal represented in the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial is $78,875,457.37. The principal of the 704,624, but from this principal $17-500,000 has been given, in addition to gifts from interest, the residue principal being $165,204,624.

Millions for Education
The General Education Board's last report, for the year ending June 30th, 1922, showed that from its foundation its appropriations of $53-569,022 to 297 educational institutions required the beneficiaries to raise $190,137,914 more for the cause of education. These were general endowments, aside from special gifts to schools of education and medicine.

In the year covered by the report the appropriations from the general and teachers' salary funds were $5,124-083, given to sixty-five institutions, which agreed to raise $9,981,467 more. A twenty year review shows that the board has paid $44,772,573 besides appropriating $52,444,200 to be paid as conditions are filled, an aggregate of $97,216,772.
The purpose of the Rockefeller Foundation is "to promote the well-being of mankind throughout the world," and a map of its activities covers both hemispheres. Its work has become largely medical and its subsidiary departments include the International Health Board, the China Medical Board and the Division of Medical Education.

Of Unknown Dimensions No announcement has ever been made of the size of the fund which created the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, but in the 1920-21 edition of Who's Who in America, material for which is generally supplied by the subjects of the biographical sketches, the institute's endowment is mentioned as $15,000,000.

Mr. Rockefeller's titimized gifts, according to the same authority, include an original fund of $43,000-000 for the General Education Board, supplemented by $32,000,000 in 1907; $125,000,000 to the Rockefeller Foundation, and $23,000,000 to the University of Chicago. The donated fund, plus interest, does not always represent the working fund of a big benefaction. The General Education Board for instance, received an additional $50,000,000 from Mr. Rockefeller in 1919, to be used in co-operation with colleges for the increase of teachers' salaries. The gift was in securities and the security market slumped. As a result, the board adopted $40,000,000 as its working base valuation of the $50,000,000 gift.

Benefactions Abroad
A study of its work for 1922 alone shows the endowment of medical chairs in China, a promise of $1,125-000 for a college of medicine in Iowa, contributions to medical schools in Canada, Brazil and Siam; a survey of medical schools in Austria, Czechoslovakia, Germany, Hungary, Poland and Switzerland; the dispatch of visiting physicians of eminence to various countries, including Salvador and the Philippines; a visit to the United States by a Strasbourg commission, emergency aid to the Pasteur Institute of Paris and many other European institutions, the contribution of $2,000,000 toward a school of hygiene in London, co-operation with American States, countries and towns and similar field work in Porto Rico, Uruguay and the Philippines; support to medical divisions of the League of Nations, the provision of fellowships for students in twenty-three countries, and aid to the public health administration of various nations.

Mr. Rockefeller's initial endowment to the Foundation was $100,000,000 and his total gifts have been $182-704,624.

Alberta Exhibit to Chicago

Alberta will be represented at the international hay and grain show at Chicago in December by a comprehensive educational exhibit to be prepared jointly by the provincial department of agriculture and the Alberta University. While the exhibit will feature production of seed grain in Alberta, and will be particularly educative in relation to certain phases of agriculture, the exhibit will also be a comprehensive display of Alberta's products. It is three years since Alberta was last represented at Chicago with an official government exhibit, although individual exhibitors have always been prominent in the international exhibit. The individual exhibits from farmers are now in course of preparation and assemblage. The provincial department of agriculture is paying the freight on these individual exhibits from point of assembling to Chicago.

Wheat Pool in Operation

Official announcement has been made that the Alberta wheat pool will be in operation the coming week.
The Alberta manager is to be Chester M. Elliott, formerly with the United Grain Growers in Calgary, and David M. Smith, formerly export manager for the Grain Growers at Winnipeg, is eastern sales manager.
The initial payment to farmers will be 75 cents bushel, basis Fort William, on No. 1 wheat, less handling charges. Arrangements have been made for the handling of the wheat through elevators controlled by elevator companies in Alberta who have signed contracts with the pool.

Legislators See North Country

Members of the Alberta Legislature to the number of about forty, together with members of the cabinet and newspapermen, visited Waterways and McMurray, in a special trip made over the A. and G. W. last week. They saw something of the improvements that had been made on the road, and inspected the tar sand deposits at Waterways.

Special Irrigation Course

In co-operation with the Dominion government Hon. George Hoadley, minister of agriculture, has made arrangements for a special course in irrigation during the coming winter, at the experimental farm at Lethbridge.

Threshers' Licenses

A total of 4,700 threshers' licenses have been issued by the department of agriculture up to date. This is 1,900 more than those registered last year. It is expected the registrations will total 5,000. Those owners of separators who have not registered are asked to do so at once.
They are also asked to send in their returns of threshing as soon as possible.

Provincial Revenue

A considerable increase in revenue from motor licenses has been recorded this year. The total received to date this year has been $729, 410, which is about $10,000 in excess already of the amount estimated at the beginning of the year.
The revenue from the gasoline tax has also been fairly good, and it is anticipated that the estimate of $225, 000, will be almost reached. In nine months more the $155,000 has been collected, with the receipts for October, always a heavy month, still to come in.

Good Business for Seed Plant

Production of pure seed grain in the province of Alberta has become stimulated to such an extent, through the efforts of the provincial department of agriculture and the seed growers' association, that practically 50,000 bushels of pure seed will be handled through the agricultural department's co-operative seed cleaning plant this season, in comparison with the 16,000 bushels handled last season, the first year of the plant's operation.

So successful was the operation of the plant in its initial season, that applications were received this year from registered seed growers for more than 140,000 bushels to be handled through the plant. The capacity of the plant at present, however, will permit only the handling of approximately 50,000 bushels during the season.
The plant will commence operations for the season this week. It is acknowledged to be one of the most modern types of seed cleaning plants on the continent. Its operation on a co-operative basis has so encouraged the production of pure seed that there are now over 600 registered seed growers in the province, with the number growing every season.

Alberta's Municipal Hospitals

Significant commentary on the success of the serviceability of the municipal hospitals system of Alberta, which is unique on the American continent, is contained in the October number of the "Modern Hospital," the organ of the American Hospital Association, and the most influential hospital publication in the world.
The comment is in the shape of an editorial note on an article written by Arthur K. Whitson, supervisor of hospital organization in Alberta. The article is based on an address delivered by Mr. Whitson at the annual session of the Alberta hospital association. The article is printed in full, with the following note by the editor:

"The public demands upon the municipal hospital are becoming more each year. The hospital as a semi-private institution where those who can afford its care in time of sickness have come to rely. To-day, we are trying to make the hospital an institution open to everyone who

CHARGES CONSTABLES WITH MANSLAUGHTER

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Hon. W. F. Nickle, attorney-general, today instructed that warrants be sworn out against four police constables involved in the shooting and killing of John Gogo during the arrest of the crew of a launch engaged in liquor running on October 6. All the constables who took part in the shooting will be charged with manslaughter.
"The facts laid before me," stated Mr. Nickle, "indicate that the use of firearms by the policemen on this occasion was unjustified and when police constables illegally use firearms they are in exactly the same position before the law as any other person."
"It should be borne in mind," stated Mr. Nickle, "that if the police shoot at fleeing offenders against the Ontario Temperance Act, or similar statutes, intending to hit them and the result is death, that this is, in law, murder."

NO MEALS OR BEDS IN TOWN OF HANNA, ALTA.

Hanna, Oct. 28.—Not a hotel is open for the accommodation of the travelling public at Hanna, nor can a meal be obtained by anyone at any of the restaurants in that town. By an order issued from the attorney-general's department licenses of the Seymour and National hotels' the Chin Soo restaurant, the Canada Cafe, the Derkin Royal Cafe and Don Hong's B. C. Cafe have been taken up by the provincial police for infractions of the liquor act.

In recent liquor raids by the provincial liquor squad all these licensees have been convicted of more or less serious infractions of the act and it is assumed here that the attorney-general's department has taken these drastic proceedings for the purpose of teaching licensees generally a salutary lesson. The general observation here is that the greatest sufferers are not the licensees, but the travelling public. Also the town stands to suffer as travelers will give it a wide berth when they find that they can get no accommodation here.

Add vinegar to the water in which table glasses are rinsed; it will give an extra brilliance to the polish.

was shaking for the drinks.

OBITUARY

DEATH OF ROBERT J. MCCREA

The community was shocked and grieved on Saturday morning last to learn of the sudden death of Robert McCrea, at his home in Macleod. Bert had been working at the ranch as usual, and on Friday evening drove in with a load of wheat, unloaded at the elevator and stayed at the town home overnight. About five thirty in the morning his mother heard him breathing heavily and found him in some distress and immediately phoned for Dr. Kennedy, who arrived in about twenty minutes, but unfortunately he was unable to render any assistance.

The funeral took place on Sunday at 3 p. m. from the home, thence to the Presbyterian Church, the body being interred in the Macleod Public Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Mr. Kennedy, of the Presbyterian Church and Lodge No. 4 I.O.O.F. of which the deceased was a member.

This was the first break in the family circle and father and mother, two sisters, Alberta and Mabel and three brothers, Earnie, Harold and Clarence are left to mourn the loss.

Very beautiful flowers from relatives, friends and societies marked the esteem in which this young man was held and expressed sympathy with the bereaved family in an unusually wide spread and sincere manner.

The community have lost a fine young man and citizen, the family a trustworthy, dutiful and loving son

REACH & COMPANY, LTD. DRY GOODS, BOOTS & SHOES, CLOTHING, ETC. GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS

Vegetables and Fruits are still plentiful. Ontario Grapes 65c per basket. Pears and Apples are very enticing. Did you ever taste Egg Plant—if not you have missed the treat of your lives. When properly cooked many take them oysters—others a beautiful fresh egg with a wee drop vinegar a pinch of pepper and salt, swallowed whole, or what the old-timers call a prairie chicken. But try an Egg Plant, and don't experiment in cooking one before asking the grocery department to give you the southern recipe—then it will be delicious. We can call your attention to dozens different varieties of fruits and vegetables, but we have divided this ad in half to give the dry goods people a show.

BARGAINS
In fact every day is Bargain Day—the goods are ticketed in the window—on the show case, or any old place to catch your eye. Odd lines of shoes and hosiery at ridiculous prices. We want to keep a clean, well-assorted stock, and this can't be done without sacrificing shop-worn goods or different lines that are slow sellers. It may be heart-rending for us to sell for, and often below, cost—but our pain is made bearable by your pleasure and joy in saving the mighty dollar.

NEXT WEEK we intend to take out all the old bargains that are left in the window and make a further reduction on them and clear them out—

THEN we will make a window display of Prints, Gingham, Sa-teens, Cotton Cashmires for school dresses, Flannellettes, Galateas, etc.; and other fabrics below cost—a poster and tickets will be in the window, reading: "Your Choice per Yard at 25c."
